Our Clinic

In Recognition of Australia's representation at the World Cup in South Africa, ACE brings you an Australian Clinic, run by Australian Coaches and Players for Australia's Future Football Players.

Join Josh McCloughan, Matt McKay, Rado Vidotic and Salvatore Sottile for a week of exciting football development with coaches that have all played football at the highest possible level both in Australia and in Europe.

When - Monday 5th of July to Friday the 9th of July 2010

Where - Albany Creek Soccer Fields, South Pine Rd, Brendale

The Camp will run in 2 Groups as follows:

GROUP 1

Under 6 – Under 10
9:30am – 12:30pm

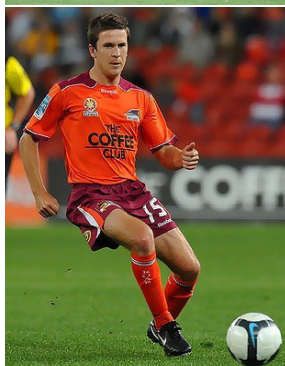

GROUP 2

Under 11 – Under 18
1:30pm – 4:30pm

Our Coaches

Josh McCloughan considered one of the best defenders in the A-League. Josh played 72 games with the Roar over the past 5 years. He has a senior coaching license and is passionate about development of Junior Australian Football players.

Matt McKay's consistency, work ethic and eye for goal have made him an iconic club member and earned him three Socceroos caps. Highly regarded by supporters, critics and team mates, McKay has enough national league experience under his belt to be considered a veteran even at the tender age of 26.

Rado Vidotic A former professional player for NK Osijek in his native Croatia, Vidotic arrived in Australia in 1988 and continued his playing days in the Queensland State League. Rado has an A Coaching Licence, the highest coaching qualification available in Australia, He is currently the Assistant Coach for the Roar.

Salvatore Sottile, a former professional player in Italy who represented Italy in the under 20 National Squad. Having retired from playing, Salvatore was Director of Coaching in Italy for the Torino Football Academy before moving to Australia.
